A batch of new cases was filed in the superior court office in this city on Tuesday. There were ten in all. Rudolph Bohun, 14 of East Lyme, brings suit through his father against William Pashoski, alias William William Pashoski, of East Lyme, for damages of $2,500 for assault. The alleged assault was committed Oct. 20th last.

Lena R. Fisher of New London has filed a divorce action against John W. Fisher of Ellington, N. J. The couple were married Feb. 21, 1904, and there were two children. The plaintiff claims desertion since Oct. 30, 1914. She asks a divorce and custody of the children.

Fantasia Pearl Lewis of New London is suing Barnett Gordon of New London for $5,000 as the result of an assault which she alleges he attempted to commit Nov. 12th in New York city.

Philip McCormick of New York city sued Sarah S. McCormick of Stonington for divorce on grounds of cruelty. The couple were married May 1, 1893. There are five children and the father asks their custody.

Pendleton Bros. Inc. have brought a replevin action against the Ship Construction and Trading Co. of Stonington. Possession of goods and chattels is asked and damages of $7,500 are also asked.

Michael Swartz of New London is suing Antonio Arra et al. of New London for damages of $4,500 as the result of a tangle over a house which the plaintiff claims the defendant agreed to buy.

A second suit for damages of $2,000 has been brought against Mr. Arra by the Oliver Woodworth Co. of New London, who seek foreclosure of a lien. Claiming he was knocked down and badly hurt by an automobile, Assn. Siganey of New London is suing the owner of the automobile, Frederick Benvenuti, of New London, for damages of $5,000. Plaintiff claims the accident happened at the intersection of Main and Church streets, New London, Oct. 30th.

Jason Thomas of New London has brought a divorce action against his wife, Alma Thomas, of New London, on grounds of a statutory offense. The couple were married March 30, 1912.

As the result of a controversy over goods and chattels damages of $8,500 are sought by Louis E. White of Stonington in an action against Frank J. Fulton et al. of New York.

NORWICH BOYS DEFEAT NEW LONDON Y. M. C. A.
 Twenty-six boys from the local Y. M. C. A. went to New London Tuesday morning to participate in the annual game and athletic tournament between the two cities. The game tournament was held in the morning from 10 to 12 and was won by the local boys by the score of 81 to 73. For the athletic program which completed the day's work, running high jump, standing broad jump, relay and potato races, the boys were divided into two groups; group A, those under ninety pounds and group B, those over ninety. New London won this contest, 45 to 37, Norwich being disqualified in the relay race through the failure of one of the runners to understand the rules. In the aquatic meet New London had things all their own way, but the local boys made a good showing considering the fact that they had no opportunity to practice. Lunch was served at noon, the New London association furnishing cocoa.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS ARE GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS
 Thomas J. Smith of New Britain, census supervisor for this state, addressed a meeting of the enumerators for Norwich in the city court room Tuesday evening. He gave in detail the method which the enumerators are to follow and answered numerous questions raised by the enumerators. He also announced that enumerators would be required to submit their enumerations of the first ten houses visited for inspection before proceeding with their work.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT AT STATE HOSPITAL
 The annual Christmas entertainment was held at the Norwich State hospital Tuesday evening. The program was arranged by Dr. O. E. Smith of the hospital staff, was held in the hospital theatre with about nine hundred patients and attendants present. The program included a cabinet scene, a trench scene, a blackface act by Messrs. Nolan, Fielding and Brooks and singing dancing and jokes.

her sister, Mrs. M. A. Bolande, of 33 Washington street.

In Sacred Heart church Monday morning at 7 o'clock Rev. Charles W. Brennan married Miss Josephine Burns and William J. Denker. The attendants were Joseph Furlong and Miss Nellie Matthews. Relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The groom is the son of William and Josephine Sikorski and is employed at Norwich Town. The bride is the daughter of John and Helen McDonald.

On New Year's day, a holy day of obligation, masses will be celebrated at Sacred Heart church at 5 and 7 in the morning. Friday evening at 8 this church there will be devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart.

Miss Martha Thurston has returned to Springfield, Mass., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Thurston, of Town street.

While in the employ of the Victory Woolen Mills Co. at Yantic, Louis S. Vergason of 6 Tanner avenue was seriously injured a day recently, as a consequence will be confined to the house for several weeks. The accident happened a week ago today (Wednesday) as Mr. Vergason was walking by the roadside near the mill, when a ladder over his shoulder, preparatory to setting a window glass, Mr. Vergason stated that without any warning of an approaching automobile, he was knocked down and dragged several feet in the mud, and when picked up was in a dazed condition. The automobile struck with such force that the ladder smashed through the windshield.

Mr. Vergason was removed to the Backus hospital, where upon examination it was found he had received a broken collar bone, lacerations on the head and several minor cuts and bruises about the face. After receiving the necessary attention at the hospital, Mr. Vergason returned to his home. Though not confined to his home, he suffers considerable pain and is still under the doctor's care.

It was reported on Tuesday that much of the surface of his body is black and blue.

Owing to the New Year's social and annual Roll Call of the First Congregational church the Thursday evening prayer service will be omitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey returned to Hartford Tuesday morning, after passing several days at the home of Mr. Bailey's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Franklin Bailey of Elm avenue.

There is to be a prayer meeting on Friday morning from 10 to 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William H. Geer, 334 Washington street, near Harland road.

TAFTVILLE
 With the approach of the New Year residents of the village who make up the New Year are making plans to celebrate this occasion. The old time parties which in years past were not complete without alcoholic refreshments, will be tame affairs this season. However, there will be many parties, dances and watch meetings throughout the village.

Post office hours at the local post office will be the same as on other holidays when there will be certain hours for the distribution of mail to the public.

The local 158 men will start the harvest of their yearly crop within the next few days and on one of the ponds the work has already been started. It is expected that there will be nine inches on most of the ponds.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Rudolph of Washington, D. C., and Vincent De P. Rudolph of Baltimore, Md., have returned to their homes after spending Christmas with Mrs. Rudolph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McSheffrey of South A street.

All that man wants here below is a little more than he has.

CORONER BROWN INVESTIGATES NEW LONDON FATALITY
 Coroner Franklin H. Brown of Norwich was in New London Monday afternoon conducting an inquiry into the death of Mrs. Helen M. G. Wheeler, who was struck by a Post Hill trolley car in Broad street, New London, Saturday afternoon. Coroner Brown examined Motorman John Connelly, Conductor John Kram, who were in charge of the trolley, and several passengers.

Motorman Connelly said that he was running the car down Broad street when at the corner of Broad and Hempstead streets Mrs. Wheeler started to cross the street from the Second Congregational church to the park. He sounded the foot bell, slowed down the car and Mrs. Wheeler stopped a few feet from the car track. Supposing that she would stand there, he started the car again and Mrs. Wheeler stepped in front of it and was struck.

Conductor Kram said that the first he knew of the accident was when the car was suddenly stopped with the application of the emergency brakes. He inquired what the matter was and Motorman Connelly told him that he had struck a woman.

XMAS PLAY AT TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
 The annual Christmas entertainment was held at Trinity Episcopal church Tuesday evening with a large number present. The program was opened by a selection by the orchestra composed of Woodruff T. Sullivan, Madeline Wright and Faith Curtis, violins, Walter E. Gilbert flute; C. A. Parker cornet and Miss Jennie Mitchell. The remainder of the program was as follows: Solo, Mrs. Reuben Potter; selection, orchestra; recitations, Esther Gilbert, Deborah Parker, Madeline Wright, Edna Hasted, Ethel Curran, Frances Boyd, solo, J.
